GENEALOGY VOLUME III NEARING COMPLETION

Off heavy print

Directors of the Merwin Association decided at their meeting in Ne York City on December 9, 1989 to proceed immediately with publication of the third volume of the Merwin Family in North America. Dat collection will end on March 30, 1990, after which Merwyn R. Buchanan, Association Genealogist, will prepare the final text for publication. I be somewhat smaller than volume II - about 450 pages - but the content will be about as large because the text will be single-spaced (instead one and a half space as in Vol. II). An announcement regarding th selling price and a solicitation of prepublication sales will be forthcom due course, but it is hoped to keep the price around $35.

The Directors also decided to hold the 33rd annual reunion at t Milford Yacht Club on Saturday, June 16, 1990. They selected Mrs. Crystal Merwin Marshall, of Ocala, FL, to fill the Directorship va caused by the resignation of Mrs. Emily M. Buffum, of Burlingto VT, as authorized at the last annual meeting of the Association.

In his report the Treasurer, Gaius W. Merwin, Jr., noted that Association's balance at the end of November was $5,056, up from $2,853 on June 1, 1989. Receipts of $10,094 during the period wer about equally divided between dues and contributions. Disbursements of $7,892 were mainly for work on Volume III of the genealogy; t October 1989 Association booklet cost $1,108 and the issue of Mile stones in this period $506. The fund-raising campaign is about $3,00 short of the goal of $20,000, and about $17,000 has already be expended in preparation of Volume III; accordingly, John David Merwin, campaign manager, is going to attempt to raise another $3,000.

Seven Directors were in attendance at the meeting, which was held in th Yale Club: Charles L. Merwin, President, Washington, DC; Gaius W. Merwin, Jr., Treasurer, Jaffrey, NH; Merwyn R. Buchanan, Genealogist, Blue Bell, PA; Christine Merwin Lehman, Secretary, Canfield, OH; Ruth Merwin MacMaster, Milford, CT; John David Merwin, Franconia, NH; and W. Linclon Merwin, Milford, CT. After the meeting, John David hosted the group to lunch in the Yale Club, with the spouses Charles, Gaius and Christine joining in.

Dear Cousin Dave:

I called today and talked to Mark. He gave me Debra's new address. Mark is a well spoken young man.

Before I called, I went through your file looking for your phone number. I did not find it, but I re-read your letter dated 5 March 1981. In it, you said you had obtained a painting of the Merwin crest and offered to send me a photo-copy in color.

At the time, I was not interested because there has never been, to my knowledge, one which has been authenticated. Furthermore, crests were awarded to a person - not a family and they were not inheritable.

Many people are, nevertheless, interested in these things. I have recently been asked for the crest and I sent a copy of the only thing I have. It was the crest such as you described with the three lions rampant surmounted by a squirrel. Unfortunately, what I have is not in color. Accordingly, I would appreciate it if you could have a color copy made of yours and send it to me. I would be pleased to pay any cost you incur. I could then supply copies in color when people ask.

Best regards to you and the family,

Dear Dave:

Thank you for your well-prepared family entry.

To my knowledge there is no coat of arms which has been authenticated as belonging to a Merwin ancestor. Crests, as I understand it, were awarded to an individual and we would have to prove our line back to such a person. This has not been done. We don't even know who the parents of Miles' Merwin were.

I regret this answer because I know it is not the one you would like. But I must be honest with you.

Best regards,
Merwyn

PS- Dave, you are not on my membership list. Did you send me a check for $2.00 annual dues? I may have forgotten to mark my records, but I don't have a record of receiving it.

Cousin Merwyn,

First of all I took the libery of typing the information that you required on myself and my family, I thought perhaps it might be a little easier to read.

During my two years in Scotland I employed a firm, York Insignia, to investigate m y family background, (this was in the mid sixties), and I would like to share the information which was supplied to me. Perhaps you, or some one in our large family has already done so, but I'll just carry-on with what I have.

Armed with a copy of an old letter head, depicting three lions, of the Merwin Association, which my mother had aquired years before from Florence, I ask the company to forward what information they could about the family. After several weeks they replyed that Sir John Mervyn, from Wiltshire was titled by the king of England but had fell about hard times and was disfavored, forieting his land & etc. They also stated that they were able to trace the crest of the family, using the letter head denoting the lions, and that they could reproduce it for me. Needles to say, I jumped at the chance, and it now hangs proudly on a wall above my favorate chair. Perhaps I was ripped off, (this would be hard to swallow in my profession), but to the best of my knowledge, this is the only crest I've heard of within the family. Are there others.....? To your knowledge is it close....? The crest is such a pretty thing, I hope you don't disappoint me......... I would be glad to send you a colored picture if it would help, and again, more then happy to supply what information I have if you are interested.

Our best to you and yours.

Dave.

on any other single day of the Civil War. Federal losses were 12,410, Confederate losses 10,700. Although neither side gained a decisive victory, Lee's failure to carry the war effort effectively into the North caused Great Britain to postpone recognition of the Confederate government. The battle also gave President Abraham Lincoln the opportunity to issue the Emancipation Proclamation, which, on 1 Jan 1863, declared free all slaves in States still in rebellion against the United ztates. Now the war had a dual purpose: to preserve the Union and end slavery. The battlefield is located in Maryland, north and east of Sharpsburg, along MD routes 34 and 65.

JD was wounded in action at the Battle of Antietam 17 Sep 1862. A field surgeon removed a musket ball from his left thigh. After nine days, he was moved from the field hospital at the rear of the battlefield to a church at Frederick, MD. Two days later he was transferred to Carver Hospital, Washington, DC. After two months in the hospital, he was furloughed home for thirty days.
Apparently, he failed to report back to the hospital at the expiration of his leave because, on 7 Dec 1862, the records state he deserted from Carver Hospital. In May 1863, he was "taken up from desertion, absent sick, in Pa." On 1 Jul 1863, J D was transferred to 1st Company, 2nd Battalion, Invalid Corps at Alexandria, VA. He apparently continued to suffer from intermittent fever and his wound until June 1864. On 10 Sep 1864, he was mustered out of service at Philadelphia with his old outfit, Company I, 106th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers.

J D's failure to return to Carver Hospital at the expiration of his furlough was termed "desertion" on his record. However, this was apparently not considered extremely serious since he was not demoted, he was honorably discharged and he later received a pension.

We do not know the date of his marriage to Margaret. It must have been in the year 1836 or 1837 since their first child, Mary, was born in Darby Township, Delaware County, PA, on 28 Feb 1838. J.D. was apparently twenty years old and Margaret Humes was about six years his senior at the time of their marriage.

James D and Margaret (Humes) Witter had eight children, all of whom were b. in Darby Township, Delaware County, PA [6]:
2. Mary (2) Witter b. 28 Feb 1838; d. 12 Mar 1838 in Darby

CHAPTER 1

THE FIRST GENERATION

1. James D (1) Witter b. 1816/1817; bap. 15 Mar 1819 in Ballyboetemple parish, Welchtown, County Donegal, Ireland; d. 18 Jun 1895 of Peritortus in Darby, Delaware County, PA. [1]. He was reinterred 12 Dec 1895 at Mt. Zion Cem. aged 79 years. About 1836/37, he married in Ireland, Margaret Humes, the dau. of John Humes of Welchtown, County Donegal, Ireland. She was born about 1811 in Ireland; d. 31 Jul 1895 in Darby, Delaware County, PA, of Paralysis and reinterred at Mt Zion Cem., Springfield Road, Collingdale, Delaware County, PA, on 12 Dec 1895 [2]. Their death certificates do not state their initial place of burial.

Family tradition is that James D and Margaret (Humes) Witter were married in Ireland (presumably in Donegal), traveled to Dublin, and immediately took ship for America. William James Witter told his son, Edgar Curtis Witter, that they were married in Ireland and danced the "Campbells are Coming" on the boat on their way to America.

James D Witter was six foot two inches tall, of fair complexion and had light hair and blue eyes [3]. He hired out as a farm laborer upon his arrival in Darby. At least, the U.S. Census of 1860 [4] for Leipersville, (Darby Township), Delaware County, PA, lists his occupation as a farm laborer and there is no record of his purchasing land in Delaware County.

On 27 Nov 1846, J D enlisted at Philadelphia for five years service in the U.S. Army. He served first in Battery E, 2nd Regiment, U.S. Artillery, and later in Battery A, 2nd Regiment, U.S. Artillery. This was the time of the Mexican War. He saw action during the battle of Molino del Rey in 1847 and was wounded. The nature and extent of his injuries were not recorded in his service records. On 26 Nov 1851, he was discharged in the grade of private at Fort Monroe, VA.

About ten years later, on 24 Aug 1861, J D responded again to the call to arms. This time it was to take part in the Civil War. He enlisted for three years in Company I, 106th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. On 1 May 1862 at the headquarters of the regiment at Yorktown, VA, JD was promoted to sergeant retroactive to the date of his enlistment. His promotion document [5] was signed by R.G. Morehead, Colonel, Commanding, and F.M. Lleis, adjutant of the regiment.

The Battle of Antietam (or Sharpsburg) on 17 Sep 1862, climaxed the first of Confederate Gen. Robert E. Lee's two attempts to carry the war into the North. About 40,000 Southerners were pitted against the 87,000-man Federal Army of the Potomac under Gen. George B. McClellan. And when the fighting ended, the course of the American Civil War had been greatly altered.

More men were killed or wounded at Antietam on 17 Sep 1862, than Please give me any needed corrections to this draft.

We would be pleased to have you join our association. The annual dues are only $2.00/year. Please send me your check for $2.00 payable to Miles Merwin Assn.

P.S. I live 90 miles east of Three Mile Island. Guess you have heard of that place?

Merwyn,

Thanks for your letter. Sorry it wasn't correct.

Yes, I've had to study TMI quite a bit and I can understand the peoples concern who live close by. However as it turned out I really don't think they have anything to worry over about. The radiation exposure was blown way out of proportion. The cost of clean up and return to operation will be the real tragedy.

thanks

I do not think that another Merwin was ever born that was more proud of his name than my father. He taught all eight of his children that their name was Merwin and to be very careful with our lives so people would always respect the name Merwin.

Dear Cousin:

Many thanks for your corrections on your family entry.

You said you are interested in obtaining a copy of the revised addition of The Merwin Family in North America. We are now writing a supplement to the genealogy published in 1978. You should have both books because the supplement is just a continuation of the first. So, I'm enclosing an order form in case you are interested in MFNA.

Also enclosed is a sample copy of Milestones, our newsletter.

Best regards,
Merwyn

PS - Pls give me a brief biography of you and Frank to complete your entry.

Dear Mary:

What a wonderful, big family you have. I envy you. You did a great job on the family record forms.

I have one thing I need your help on. I presume Marie Ann is unmarried. The procedure a genealogist follows in this situation is to identify the child's father. The reason this is done is so that the child's line may be traced by future generations of researchers. So I must ask if I may have Bobbi's father's name, date & place of birth, his parent's names.

Also, I'd like a brief biography of Marie Ann. What her occupation is, etc.

Incidentally, what does the E. in Thomas E. Merwin stand for? Is that just an initial?

Another need - a short biography of you and your husband.

Thank-you for your fine efforts.

Best regards,

Merwyn

In reviewing my records, I found that I have written you more than three months ago requesting information about your family for inclusion in Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America, our genealogy.

It is possible that you have replied and I misfiled your letter since filing is not one of my strong points. If you have answered, please tell me so. If not, may I hear from you? Your answer will be much appreciated and ensure your being in the book.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Cousin Catherine:

We were sorry to receive a note from your mother about your grandmother Merwin's death.

At your mother's suggestion, we are writing you to send you a brochure of our Association which will provide you with an application for membership. I knew your grandparents from several of the Merwin reunions in Milford. They were fine people. Whether you wish to join our efforts or not, I would appreciate it if you would give me details of your grandmother's death. What was the date; when was she buried and in what cemetery; did she have a memorial service and where was it held; I would like the name of the minister who officiated, etc. I need this kind of information for Milestones our newsletter.

Whether or not you join us, please give me your biography along the following suggested lines:

Will you please give me any needed addition or correction of your entry as we now have it. A copy is enclosed.

If you have been born a Merwin (with the surname Merwin), you will be included in Volume III without question. You need not be a member of our Association. However, we would be pleased to have you join to support our efforts and be informed of the doings of Merwins around the globe. Just send me a check in the amount of $10 payable to Miles Merwin Assn. for annual dues and we will sign you up. If you are already a member, we appreciate your support.

If any of your children have married since this entry was made in the genealogy, please give me their current address so I may write them.
